Elisabeth Leyson to Address Library Patrons Annual Meeting

Elisabeth Leyson will be speaking June 7 at the Patrons of the Library annual meeting about the memoir of her late husband, Leon, detailing his family’s life under the protection of Oskar Schindler during World War II and Nazi occupation.

Leyson will discuss her husband’s book, “The Boy on the Wooden Box,” a look at how his family survived and how Schindler’s generosity and cunning saved their lives. Schindler is credited with saving the lives of hundreds of Jews, and his story was brought to worldwide attention through Steven Spielberg’s film “Schindler’s List” and several books.

Elisabeth Leyson is a former schoolteacher and administrator at Fullerton College.

The meeting, which is open to the public, starts at 2 p.m. in the Pollak Library’s Rotary Club of Fullerton Room 130.
