Visitors to the "Dune" exhibit view artwork created by CSUF faculty members and students in celebration of the book's 50th anniversary.

The Pollak Library is holding a silent auction for the original art made for and exhibited in the exhibit. Proceeds will benefit the Pollak Library’s University Archives and Special Collections.

Bidders are invited to visit the silent auction webpage and view the pieces on an or see them on display in the Salz-Pollak Atrium
Gallery. Winning bids of more than $50 are tax deductible.

The auction runs through Dec. 22, and a list of the highest bid for each piece will be posted on the Pollak Library’s website as the bidding progresses: Dec. 7, 14 and 21. More information is available.